

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to air the documentary stolen honor is a good one. Sinclair uses the public airwaves to serve the public interest. Sinclair's showing of this documentery helps get the news out to the people who can make up their own mine about the content. keep up the good work!